

THREE EDUCATIONAL POLICIES

1 , DIPLOMA POLICIES (POLICIES ON ACADEMIC DEGREE CONFERMENT)

- Acquire the ability to understand and resolve social problems equipped with advanced expert knowledge and engineering of studies on community and human development.
- Acquire interdisciplinary intellect and the ability to analyze issues necessary to support development and growth of children and young people who grow up in diverse region and family.
- Acquire the ability to cooperate necessary to collaborate and support with pertinent organizations such as schools, regional education, community, environment, medical, arts, etc.
- Acquire advanced leadership and communication skills necessary for a practitioner of community and human development.

2 , CURRICULUM POLICIES (CURRICULUM TO ACHIEVE ACADEMIC/EDUCATIONAL TARGET) THE CURRICULUM OF PROGRAM PROVIDES;

- Provide required courses to cultivate the basic skills and to understand research issues and literacy across interdisciplinary fields, and research/practical theory required for an expert of community and human development.
- Provide foundational courses to learn internal aspects of human and its development/progress as well as issues in community and its relation.
- Provide application courses to acquire practical skills in community by understanding necessity of inclusive and diverse learning in each life stage.
- Provide seminars for research under main/sub supervisors in interdisciplinary fields in order to acquire interdisciplinary intellect and communication skills.

3 , ADMISSION POLICIES

- Person who has basic academic skills of education/psychology, health/life sciences, language/arts in order to learn community and human development.
- Person who has creative intellect and proactive initiative and is willing to take on a challenge to resolve new issues related to community and human development.
- Person who has strong interest and motivation in contributing to the community through studies on community and human development.